NEW LAW

VII.2.ii.c Kingdom financial summary in Pegasus

The office of the Chancellor of the Exchequer must publish in each July issue of Pegasus a summary report (e.g. one page per country) of the Kingdom's account balances and overall income/expenditure covering the most recent financial year for each country, alongside comparable figures from the previous year. This summary should cover all accounts held by the Kingdom in any country.

As the Kingdom is not a legal entity, and exists in multiple legal jurisdictions, these reports are for the information of the Populace only.

They do not constitute legal, financial, or regulatory reporting.
